You were created to Go M.A.D. – to _____ a difference.

The biggest difference you can ever make is to take someone to _____ with you.

Successful evangelism is taking the initiative to share Jesus Christ in the power of the Holy Spirit and leaving the _____ to God.

It's not our job to convince people...

It's not our job to convict people...

It's not our job to convert people...

It's not our job to save people...

It's our job to _____ people.

The convincing, convicting, converting, and saving is the work of the Holy Spirit.

Luke 19:10; John 14:12

“Hopefully you have discovered that sharing your faith is not an option for us as followers of Jesus Christ. The Lord has commanded us to ‘Go into all the world and preach the gospel.’ In other words, He has told us to Tell Someone. And each of us has a strategic part to play. Some sow the seed of the gospel, others water the seed others have sown, and even others reap where people have already sown and watered. ‘I planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the increase.’ That’s right. God gives the increase. The Lord does not hold us responsible for how many have come to Him through our sharing. That’s his job, not ours. We are called to faithfulness. On that final day, Jesus will not say, ‘well done good and successful servant,’ but rather ‘good and faithful servant.’ (Matthew 25:23)

We are to be faithful to share this message and leave the results in the hands of God.”

(1 Corinthians 3:5-6)

“Satan is always ready to rock the cradle of sleeping Christians.” – Pastor Skip Heitzig

1. RECOGNIZE WHY YOU ARE _____ YOU ARE.

Esther 4:14b

- You are “Esther”, divinely positioned to _____ lives.
- Every person that you meet is _____ by God.

- The greatest title you'll ever have - _____ for Jesus Christ.

2 Corinthians 5:20

An Ambassador is someone appointed by the highest authority there is to _____ Him in a specific place.

In his article, "Anatomy of a Sick Church – 10 Symptoms to Watch": Thom Rainer said, "One of the symptoms was "Little evangelistic fruit. As a general rule, a healthy church will reach at least one non-Christian for every 20 in worship attendance. A church with a worship attendance of 200, for example, should see at least ten new Christians a year."

What is your connection to people?

Based on

- my interests
- my position in life
- and my background

Who are some of the kinds of people who might listen to someone like me?
_____ and _____

1 Corinthians 9:22

- Two assignments for spiritual rescuers...
1. _____
- Show people you are _____ because you follow Christ.

Biblically, if your faith hasn't _____ you, then your faith hasn't saved you.

"But followers of Christ are new creations, born from above and changed from within, with values and lifestyles that confront the world and clash with accepted morals. True believers don't blend in very well."

- Life Application Study Bible

1 Peter 4:2-4

- We are to be "_____" and "_____"

"If you are truly a disciple of Jesus, you will be supernaturally compelled to make disciples of Jesus. True followers of Jesus do not need to be convinced, cajoled, persuaded, or manipulated into making disciples of all nations. Everyone who follows Jesus Biblically will fish for men globally." "Follow Me" by David Platt

"If Christians make no effort to affect the world around them, they are of little value to God. If we are too much like the world, we are worthless. Christians should not blend in with everyone else. Instead, we should affect others positively, just as seasoning brings out the flavor in food." - Life Application Study Bible on Matt 5:13

"An unexceptional, standard, run-of-the-mill life for someone who follows Jesus Christ is not acceptable to him, and should not be acceptable to who you see in the mirror each day." "The Watchman" by Mark Cahill

Daily application of God’s Word has a purifying effect on our minds and hearts. Scripture:

I John 5:12

“It is impossible to be neutral. Every person has a master – either God or sin...You are free to choose between two masters, but you are not free to adjust the consequences of your choice.”

Rom 6:19-23 - Life Application Study Bible Commentary

When you see what Jesus sees, you’ll see future _____ of Hell.

Jonathan Edwards on Hell – “...consider the torment of burning like a livid coal, not for an instant or a day, but for ‘millions upon millions of ages’, at the end of which they would know that their torment was no nearer to an end than ever before, and that they would never, never be delivered.”

“Many books deny Hell. Some embrace universalism, the belief that all people will ultimately be saved. Some consider Hell to be the invention of some wild-eyed prophets obsessed with wrath. They argue that Christians should take the higher road of Christ’s love. But this perspective overlooks a conspicuous reality: In the Bible Jesus says more than anyone else about Hell. (Matt 10:28; 13:40-42; Mark 9:43-44). He refers to it as a literal place and describes it in graphic terms – including - raging fires, and the worm that doesn’t die. Christ says the unsaved ‘will be thrown outside, into the darkness, where there will be weeping and the gnashing of teeth’ (Matt 8:12). In his story of the rich man and Lazarus, Jesus taught that in Hell, the wicked suffer terribly, are fully conscious, retain their desires and memories and reasoning, long for relief, cannot be comforted, cannot leave their torment, and are bereft of hope. (Luke 16:19-31). The Savior could not have painted a more bleak or graphic picture.”
- “Heaven” by Randy Alcorn

Do we _____ God?

2 Cor 5:10-11

“Imagine the impact our churches would have in our communities if each Christian committed to sharing the gospel once a week with someone who expresses a need.” – Chuck Swindoll

“If you think about it, there is no way you could ever fit into your church sanctuary all of the non-Christians with whom the members of your church are in contact weekly - no matter how big the sanctuary. The fact is, most people come to faith through the influence of family members, small group Bible studies, or a conversation with a friend after a church service: Christians intentionally talking about the gospel.” - J. Mack Stiles - “Evangelism - How the Whole Church Speaks of Jesus”

Sharing Your Testimony

by Charles R. Swindoll

Acts 22:1-21

A time-honored, effective method of evangelism is your personal testimony. Just telling about your spiritual pilgrimage. The skeptic may deny your doctrine or attack your church, but he cannot honestly ignore the fact that your life has been cleaned up and revolutionized.

Now I’m not talking about some stale, dragged-out verbal marathon. That kind of testimony never attracted anyone! I’m speaking of an effective, powerful missile launched from your lips to the ears of the unsaved. Consider these five suggestions:

1. You want to be listened to, so be interesting. It’s a contradiction to talk about how exciting Christ really is in an uninteresting way. Remember to guard against religious clichés, jargon, and hard-to-understand terminology. Theologians, beware!

2. You want to be understood, so be logical. Think of your salvation in three phases and construct your testimony accordingly: (a) before you were born again—the struggles within, the loneliness, lack of peace, absence of love, unrest, and fears; (b) the decision that revolutionized your life; and (c) the change—the difference it has made since you received Christ.

3. You want the moment of your new birth to be clear, so be specific. Don’t be vague. Speak of Christ, not the church. Emphasize faith more than feeling. Be simple and direct as you describe what you did or what you prayed or what you said. This is crucial!

4. You want your testimony to be used, so be practical. Be human and honest as you talk. Don't promise, "All your problems will end if you will become a Christian," for that isn't true. Try to think as unbelievers think.

5. You want your testimony to produce results, so be warm and genuine. A smile breaks down more barriers than the hammer blows of cold, hard facts. Let your enthusiasm flow freely. It's hard to convince someone of the sheer joy and excitement of knowing Christ if you're wearing a face like a jail warden. Above all, be positive and courteous. Absolutely refuse to argue. Nobody I ever met was "arm wrestled" into the kingdom. Insults and put-downs turn people off.

Ask God to open your lips and honor your words . . . but be careful! Once your missile hits the target, you'll become totally dissatisfied with your former life as an earthbound, secret-service saint.

No persuasive technique will ever take the place of your personal testimony. If you have not discovered the value of telling others how God rearranged your life, you've missed a vital link in the chain of His plan for reaching the lost.

Review of Important Points

HOW TO BECOME A SPIRITUAL RESCUER

1. Recognize why you are WHERE you are – a full time Ambassador for Jesus Christ
2. Every day ask Jesus to break your heart for the LOST. – They are future INHABITANTS of hell
3. Conquer the FEARS that stop you - Remember who's in CHARGE - You are God's GLOVE
4. Tell the story that can RESCUE them for all of eternity - BC – conversion – AD
 - Believe - Repent - Receive

PRAY THE 3 OPEN PRAYER EVERY DAY

1. Lord, open DOORS
2. Lord, open HEARTS
3. Lord, open MY MOUTH

2 ASSIGNMENTS FOR SPIRITUAL RESCUERS

1. SHOW

2. TELL

“The Christian call to evangelism is a call not simply to persuade people to make decisions but rather to proclaim to them the good news of salvation in Christ, to call them to repentance, and to give God the glory for regeneration and conversion. We don't fail in our evangelism if we faithfully tell the gospel to someone who is not converted; we fail only if we don't faithfully tell the gospel at all. Evangelism itself isn't converting people; it's telling them that they need to be converted and telling them how they can be.” - Mark Dever

There's relationship you were CREATED to have. It's one you DON'T have. It's one you CAN have. But you must CHOOSE to have it, by believing, repenting, and receiving the gift by faith.

HOW TO HELP YOU GET STARTED AND MAINTAIN AN INTENTIONAL DESIRE TO BE OBEDIENT AND SHARE YOUR FAITH WITHOUT FEAR

It will take some prayer, effort, openness, transparency, encouragement, continued learning and accountability to make sharing your faith in Christ every day a lifestyle. To help speed up the process and ensure that this happens for the most people, I'd HIGHLY recommend that you begin meeting weekly as a group and discuss the following:

Pray the 3 Open-Prayer Every Day and Look for the Divine Appointments That God Has for Each of You

Take a moment and share with your group any testimonies that you may have of putting into practice what was learned in your training.

- Where did you have opportunity to share with someone?
- Did you pray with someone after your conversation revealed a need the person may have?
- Did you share the Gospel?
- If you prayed with someone, did that open the door for further discussion?
- If you had opportunity to share the Gospel, how was it received?
- Were you able to place some Gospel literature in this person's hands?
- Will there be other opportunities to follow up with this person? If yes, how so?
- Was there a clear open door to speak to someone about Christ but you failed to take the opportunity?
 - If so, why? What was your thinking at that moment?
 - When did you realize that you had missed an opportunity?
 - What do you think you could do to have your radar always up to avoid missing many more opportunities?
